

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1892.

NO. 97

BARBOURVILLE, KNOX COUNTY.

—There has been a protracted meeting going on at the Christian church for some five or six days. Rev. Masters is conducting it.

—The Rev. John Thomas, formerly pastor of the Methodist church of this place, but now of Middleburg, Casey county, is visiting friends here this week.

—Mr. W. J. Candill returned from Manchester, last week, and reported the condition of Joe Hocker, who was shot there in the recent trouble, last week, as being much improved and will probably live.

—Judge Tinsley has been sick for some time but is better now. Mrs. M. A. Singleton is rapidly pushing to completion her beautiful residence on Main street, in the burnt district. The building is two stories and will be one of the prettiest in town. Miss Annie Dishman has been sick a few days. Mr. Joe Sampson suffered severely Tuesday night and Wednesday morning with an attack of colic.

—The Knox County Fair Association will hold their regular annual stockholders' meeting Saturday next and elect a new board or confirm the old ones. The stockholders can do no better than retain the old board, as all of these gentlemen have shown much push and energy in getting this new enterprise on foot. It is the intention of the association to greatly improve the grounds before the regular exhibition this year.

—The Hon. James D. Black delivered the third of the regular series of lectures given in the course, which Union College, of this place, is treating the people to. Mr. Black, as everybody knows, who knows him at all, is one of the most eloquent men of all the mountains. His subject, "The Lawyer on Horse Back," is particularly a striking one and would naturally tend to draw a good crowd, but Mr. Black's eloquence will always pack a house and notwithstanding there was a protracted meeting going on in town at the same time, College Chapel was pretty well filled, Tuesday night, and all listened attentively while Mr. Black talked for about an hour.

—The Barbourville Land & Improvement Company's directors were most all in Louisville Monday and Tuesday. The company had a suit in court there with the Central Lampson-Huston Electric Light Company and at a meeting of several of the stockholders and the major part of the directors, it was recommended that the company assign and allow the property now controlled by the company to fall into the hands of a receiver. In a conversation with Mr. John A. Black, cashier of the Cumberland Valley Bank, of this place, who is a director of the Land & Improvement Company, and who formerly owned most of the property which the company has laid off into town lots and upon which he yet holds liens, mortgages and notes, he told me that the company would have a regular directors' meeting at this place, in the Cumberland Valley Bank building, Thursday night, at which time they would take some definite action in the latter and that it was his opinion that the property would all pass into the hands of a receiver and be disposed of through an assignee. As to what the final outcome would be Mr. Black said he did not feel at liberty to speak.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—A very pleasant dance was enjoyed at Mrs. Capt. Moore's Monday night.

—Quite a number from Crab Orchard took in the minstrels at Stanford, Monday night, and all were highly pleased with the show.

—The basket luncheon at the Baptist church takes place Monday night, Feb. 5th. All are invited to attend and help the church in this way.

—It is rumored in our town that Mr. Walter Garner and Miss Mary Curtis were married in Danville on Tuesday. This has been expected for some time. Look out for another soon.

—The L. & N. is putting in tiling along the platform and will afterwards put about six cars of slack around the depot, getting ready to accommodate the hack men this summer without so much mud.

—Mr. J. C. Rhinehart and wife left for Guthrie, Oklahoma, Tuesday. Mr. Magee and family were accompanied to Sherman, Texas, by Mr. Clarence Hardin. All left Tuesday and as Mr. Sam Magee and Mr. Hardin were members of the band the boys came out to see them off and we had lots of music.

—The specialist from Louisville was here again Tuesday and was kept busy the entire day. The Dr.'s skill is being shown in the remarkable improvements his patients are making. The Dr. has the confidence of our people and is building up a very large practice here.

—We have applied to Speaker Crisp for an editorial position on the Congressional Record and we are certain to get it. No word taken on subscription. The Record is run by gas.—Bellville Banner.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Jailer Lovell has been seriously ill with a throat trouble this week.

—A couple of Italians with bears amused the young as well as old folks on the streets Monday.

—A telegram Wednesday from Paint Lick announced the death of Olmstead Adams, an uncle of the writer, who had many relatives here.

—The farmers' alliance had a speaker here last Saturday, who gave both political parties hades from away back. About 25 persons were present to hear him. I couldn't find anybody who knew his name.

—The managers of the Dr. Keeley Institute will be here some time this month and will either go into business at this point or Danville. The intend to board the lion in his den, evidently, when they locate in King Alcohol's strongest State.

—Wm. F. Tomlinson, of Pulaski, came in Tuesday with 20 head of mules and several horses to sell to our people, but from the best I can learn he has come to a bad market. There are plenty of horses and mules for sale in the county, but money is so scarce there is no demand for them.

—In my telegram in regard to the killing of Hurd and Hocker last week at Manchester, I made a mistake in that Marion Hurd was a son of Judge Hard, when he was his brother, and your Barbourville correspondent had it correct. We were both mistaken when we reported that Joe Hocker was killed, but that report had come to me with the other account. A gentleman from Manchester, who came to London Tuesday, reports that Hocker was resting easy on Monday. The shooting was done by a guard named Burns, who shot Hocker through the side, the same ball killing Marion Hurd. Hocker had taken a pistol from one of the guards.

McKINNEY.

—E. O. Singleton has returned home from Alabama, nursing an attack of grip. B. G. Lane, agent for the Singer Sewing machine, will leave shortly to canvass Wayne county. K. L. Tanner has been confined to his room for several days with the prevailing disease. Arch McKinney is slowly improving from a severe attack of pneumonia. The little Misses Johnson, of Kingsville, have returned home from a several days' visit to the family of J. K. Carson. Squire W. J. Duncan returned Sunday from Wilmore, where he had gone to assist his old friend, Bert Shumate, in a Methodist revival. Mrs. E. M. Ware has been on the sick list for several days, but is convalescing. Cicero Reynolds is able to be out again, after several weeks' illness. He made his first appearance at Sunday school last Sunday and filled his position as superintendent. Will Huffaker, one of the "boys of the road," has been lodging at the Commercial Hotel for several weeks, while his house has been making diligent search to find out his whereabouts. Miss Nannie Bailey left last Monday to enter Garrard Female College, at Lancaster. Mrs. J. M. Hubble and children returned from Pulaski county Monday. John A. Bibb, a railroad contractor, has moved his family from Bristol, Tenn., to this place. Mr. Bibb will leave for New York next week, where he will be engaged for the whole of '92. D. A. Baugh, who recently purchased the Sharpe farm near town, has moved to his new home. Miss Mamie Dodds returned home Sunday from Beuna Vista, where she had been visiting for two weeks.

Williamsburg Items.

—Ran, the little son of G. A. Denham, is quite sick at his father's home.

—The many friends of Miss Ida Prewitt, at this place, regret very much to hear of her untimely death.

—There will be a special term of the common pleas court here next Saturday, to appoint a master commissioner to fill the place of G. D. Moore, who died some weeks ago. There are several applicants for the position.

—John Pennington was convicted in the police court here to-day for aiding the prisoners in an attempt to break jail here a few days ago. Pennington was in jail for selling liquor and only had a few more days to serve, but goes back now for six months more.

—This section is the place for lively republican conventions and we are anticipating two in the present year. One for the circuit judgeship and one for Congress. There are several candidates already spoken of for each place. The democrats are standing back looking on, while the leaders of the other side quarrel over the spoils, hoping that some time they may find a place to put in a good man.

—The Cincinnati Commercial believes in the g. h. Hear it: In this region, yesterday the sky was cloudy, but between 12 and 1 o'clock there were provoking glimpses of sunshine, fully sufficient to cast a ground-hog shadow and guarantee a continuance of winter for six weeks. About that time, too, the wind began to roar, temperature declined and the new winter lease showed symptoms of prompt inauguration.

—The Indiana woman, who is eating dog meat to cure the consumption, is said to be steadily improving.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Our people are well pleased with the new judicial district. We can now elect Geo. E. Stone Commonwealth's attorney.

—Miss Carrie Cloyd is dangerously ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. Capt. Biggs, whose sickness we mentioned in our last, died on the 25th ult. She was 70 years of age.

—George Drye, who moved from here to Kansas some three years ago, has returned with his family to this place, where he will doubtless make his future home. Louis Worthington is at home again, after a short visit to his old home in Bracken county. Prof. Tom Hopper returned from Somerset Monday. M. S. McMullin is lying in a critical condition at his home at Yosemite.

—The man Knight, the Middleboro swindler, and our Robert E. Knight must be one and the same. Our Robert was a swindler from away back. It will be remembered that he "kept store" at Yosemite and sold goods, wares and merchandise to the amount of several hundred dollars that he had bought on credit. And falling desperately in love with the widow Homan, he took her and the money that ought to have gone to his creditors and skipped between two suns, leaving his wife penniless upon the mercies of the people. Bob had plenty of sense, of a very mean quality, and would do anything for money. He was accused when a boy of allowing things to stick to his fingers that did not belong to him, and we have frequently heard his veracity doubted since he grew to manhood. So you see that the Middleboro Knight and our Bob may turn out to be one and the same Bob.

HUBBLE.

—Some have begun to plow as though they meant farming.

—There will be preaching here the 2d Sunday by some student from Danville.

—Dodd and Andrew Pope realized $270 per acre for their tobacco.

—It is rumored that George Eubanks, Sr. is going to move beyond Stanford and that Thomas Reed has rented his place here for $75.

—G. P. Bright has been appointed by the governor to fill the magistrate's place here made vacant by the death of B. F. Engleman. He will make us a good officer and will be the right man in the right place.

—Miss Susie Bright is on the grip list. Mrs. B. F. Engleman has moved all her household goods to Mr. James Herrin's. J. W. Swope is moving back to his mother-in-law's in Garrard county. J. J. Walker shipped a car-load of mules to Atlanta, last Saturday. Mrs. Catherine Blackerby is on the sick list.

—With but little hope of ever getting to read these lines in the I. J., as it was Tuesday before we got our Friday's paper and it is now Wednesday and no Tuesday's paper yet, I write anyway. We are not counting on getting next Friday's paper at all, but hope to hear of it. It is a perfect outrage, what poor mail service we get here in our correspondence with our county seat and town.

When our mail from Stanford, which was mailed early Friday morning or perhaps the night before, don't reach us on stage from Lancaster to Danville Friday, we say we are sorry the mail missed connection; when it still fails to reach us Saturday, we say we will not take the Stanford paper any longer. When it rests all day Sunday and don't reach us on Monday we say it is perfect low down carlessness on the part of some P. M. or postal clerk. But when we see them tired and worn out, marching up from west baskets through carelessness along the line, we say, all hail the best country paper for State and county news and we have a perfect right to say this, because we have long since heard of every item in its columns before it reaches us. Now, P. M., a word to you, whether you are getting much or little pay, you have no right to neglect your duty in any position in the department, because the business and pleasure of this country is, in a great measure, in your hands and can be locked up or blocked by one failure on your part. Do you realize that each bundle of mail you handle, however small or great it may appear, is bearing business or pleasant news to some one whose eyes will sparkle with delight to receive it in due time and whose heart will break with disappointment if received too late? Your motto should be while in such an important position:

To meet each duty in time and in place. And if for the pay you cannot your duties attend, You should step down and out, that the people May know upon what to depend.

Your Friend and P. M.

HUBBLE, KY.

A dissolute linguist, a teacher of seven different languages, has been jailed at Laramie, Wyo., for beating his wife, who supported him by taking in washing.

—The Indiana woman, who is eating dog meat to cure the consumption, is said to be steadily improving.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. George Smith has been granted a pension at the rate of $12 per month.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Lawson have moved to the Doores property, on Danville street.

—Judge T. Z. Morrow is presiding over our court with his accustomed ability and efficiency. He is courteous to all members of the bar, and especially to the younger members of the profession, who appreciate his leniency and uniform kindness.

—The trustees have sadly neglected the lighting of the street lamps and the result is we have long been wandering in the darkness. It is to be hoped that the city dads are not preferring darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil. Give us more light!

—Rev. J. M. Worrall, D. D., of Danville, closed a series of sermons in the Presbyterian church at this place Sunday evening. All the congregations of the town participated in the last services and showed their appreciation of the able and eloquent discourses of this eminent divine. It is the desire of the people generally that he will visit us again at no distant day.

—Mrs. J. Roe Young, of Middleboro, is visiting her father, W. Anderson. Miss Kate Walden is visiting in Cynthiana. Among the visiting attorneys this week were Col. T. P. Hill, R. C. Warren and Judge Sanfley, of Stanford; R. P. Jacobs, Robert Harding, Danville; Casper Williams, Mt. Vernon; Allen and White, of Lexington. Mr. John Kerby has been appointed U. S. storekeeper by Collector Burnam and assigned to duty in Anderson county. Will Collier has returned to Louisville. Miss Alice Young has gone to Virginia, where she will enter college. R. Graham Frank has sufficiently recovered from a severe spell of pneumonia to return to the Bible College at Lexington. Mrs. R. H. Young is visiting her father, Dr. Huffman. Miss Mary Annie Wilmore is visiting Mrs. J. E. Stormes. Mrs. Cleo W. Brown, of Mt. Vernon, is visiting relatives in Lancaster. Mrs. A. H. Rice leaves to-day for Paducah, where Mr. Rice is engaged in business. Mr. W. S. Ferguson has returned from Covington. Mrs. W. G. Dunlap will leave to-day for New York, to visit her sister, Mrs. W. C. McFarland.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The meeting at Mt. Sterling Christian church closed Monday night with 22 additions, 15 by confession and 7 by letter.

—The Archbishop of Canterbury has issued a special prayer against the grip. If prayer will knock out the grip microbe, it is the only remedy yet discovered which will do it.—C.-J.

—All the prohibition preachers are complimenting Mrs. John Young Brown because she has decided to have no wine or liquor served in the gubernatorial mansion during her regime.

—Rev. W. J. Johnston, pastor of the Williamsburg Baptist church, was here Tuesday raising subscriptions for the Williamsburg school and secured $200. John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil man, has promised to give $20,000 when that amount is raised from others, and Mr. Johnston is making strenuous efforts to secure his part.

—The Hopkinsville Kentuckian says that Dr. H. C. Morrison preached the dedicatory sermon on the reopening of the Methodist church there Sunday to a crowd which filled every available space of the large auditorium. At the two services morning and evening the sum of $1,500 was raised, which amount paid off all the balance due on the work of enlarging the building.

—Bro. Charlie Powell, son of Capt. Ben Powell, preached to large audiences last Sunday and Sunday night at the Christian church, Junction City. These were his fifth and sixth effort in the pulpit and the ease and ability with which he discussed the important subjects—"The Church of the Living God" and "What is Life?"—were simply remarkable for one of his age and experience. He has given up the study of law to become an honored minister of the gospel and the Christian church may well be proud of him. James Zachary.

A regular working threshing machine in full operation on the stage and a male quartet are features of "Si Plunkard," a play much in the same vein as "Alvin Joslin," "The Old Homestead," "The Country Fair," and other homely studies of Yankee life. J. C. Lewis assumes the title. His successful contribution towards the evening's entertainment are some clever whistling and a cornet solo. The stereotyped down eastern spinster is not glacking and is portrayed well by Miss Maggie Rice.—San Francisco Daily Examiner. At Walton's Opera House, Friday, Feb. 12.

—After talking two days on the free silver business, with which it has no more to do than the man in the moon, the House finally referred the resolution to a committee. The Legislature has so far cost $40,000 and has actually done nothing but talk.

SIX : PAGES.

Our irascible friend, Polk Johnson, grows facetious and sarcastic in his effort to show that certain editors are better constitutional constructionists than Jackson Hendrick, who helped make the document and knows, of course, what his co-workers meant and didn't mean when they made a direct and perfectly plain provision. We don't blame the colonel for admiring the attorney general's hair splitting decisions, which are simply evasions of the fundamental law, that 213,950 voters pronounced better than good, since his wonderful decision that while the public printer can not lawfully ride on a free pass, as public printer, he can as editor ride all he wants or as much as the railroads will let him, making as it were sort of a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde kind of a dual character of him, but we do blame him for going back on his best friends, who, while opposing the constitution before the election with all their hearts and souls, are for a strict construction of it now.

"Three cheers for our next president" given with an earnestness that made the earth quake by a crowd that filled the Atlanta streets for squares around, rather gives a black eye to the statement of Editor Howell, that everybody in Georgia is for Hill. The great editor is much like the ostrich, that buries its head in the sand and thinks it has hid. He is for Hill himself and, like the silly bird, is utterly oblivious to the fact that he is alone in his unwarranted conclusions. Even Atlanta is ten to one for the ex-president.

The Supreme Court has decided in favor of Gov. Boyd in the Nebraska contest and he will take the reins of government from the usurper, Thayer. It was charged that Boyd had not been a naturalized citizen the proper length of time, but the court holds substantially that the enabling act naturalized all inhabitants of Nebraska at the time of its admission, except such as desired to retain their foreign rights, proved his intention to become a citizen. There are now 27 democrats of the 44 governors in the U. S.

EX PRESIDENT CLEVELAND was greeted by 5,000 people at Atlanta as he was returning from his Mississippi hunt and given a tremendous ovation. He made a neat little speech, and during the 20 minutes' stop, shook hands right and left with his admirers, whose cheers shook the earth as the train pulled out. The editor of the Constitution needn't try to stuff it down anybody's throat that Georgia is for Hill. Cleveland is as solid there as he is everywhere that honesty and sterling integrity are appreciated.

MR. ARNOLD, of Missouri, has introduced a resolution requesting the president to recall Pat Egan, Minister to Chili, in the interest of an amicable adjustment of relations between the countries. It ought to be unanimously adopted. The unprincipled creature ought never have been sent to represent this country anywhere and he never would have been, but for the obligations of the president to him.

GOV. MCCREARY's amendment to the rules of the House requiring all appropriation bills to be reported within 80 days after the appointments of the committees at the beginning of a long session and 40 days during a short session, was adopted unanimously. This will give time for a more careful consideration of the bills, some of which have heretofore been sprung on the House a few days before adjournment.

THERE are 2,646 persons resident in 47 different countries on the U. S. pension rolls who get their money with the same regularity as the home contingent. To remedy this a bill has been introduced to cut off all foreign pensions, but there would be no justice in its passage. Like many of the Northern soldiers they went in for the stuff and as Uncle Sam asked them no questions then, he can't be so particular now.

ON our third page will be found a deserved tribute to Col. Silas Adams, one of the whitest republicans in Kentucky, by Dr. J. T. Bohon, as red-hot a democrat as ever lived. The doctor used to room with "Old Silo" at college and he is about as well acquainted with him as one man can be with another.

COL. A. S. BERRY has already announced himself a candidate for Congress in the Covington district and mounted the raging stamp. The 6th seems to have a plethora of statesmen anxious to put Mr. Dickinson in the hole.

GOV. BROWN declines to interfere and Henderson will have a hanging to day. Bob Charleston, the murderer of a woman, will do the dull thud act.

THE Louisiana Octopus has to go. The Supreme Court decision knocked it silly. It is well.

COL BRECKINRIDGE hasn't given up his determination to have all the outside facts relating to the Chili business brought before the House and country. He is certain that there is something very rotten in Denmark and will do all in his power to take the buncombe wind out of the president's sails. Go it, thou of the silver top and tongue! The democracy and the other honest men of the country are with you.

THE Cincinnati Commercial Gazette remarks: The name of John G. Carlisle is cropping out as a democratic candidate for the presidency, and a mighty strong candidate he would prove. The fact that he lives over the border from Cincinnati would not hurt him a bit. There are now five bridges between Covington and Cincinnati and it is proposed to build another.

THE Reed method of counting a quorum will not go this session of Congress. The proposition was defeated after two days of debate. Reed spoke in its behalf, although he is not in it, as he was anxious to have himself remembered as the author of an entirely new system of parliamentary rules. The democrats decided, however, to return to democratic methods and the practices and precedents of 100 years.

THREE murderers, two for taking the lives of women, will be hung in this State to-day. This is getting rid of them pretty lively, but it would take three times three, executed every Friday this year to rid us of that large and often most favored class of creatures. More regard for human life or more rope should be the cry.

THE deaf pensioners are trying to get their amounts raised from $30 to $72 a month, the same as the blind get. The justice of such claim is not apparent. A blind man is totally incapable of making a living. A deaf one can do anything he wants to do and noise won't bother him.

MR. A. J. CASEY now has complete control of the Owensboro Inquirer, which is improving all the time.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—The Senate killed the bill to throw open all turnpike gates on Sunday.

—The legislative caucus renominated Mrs. Mary B. Day for librarian. Miss Maud Kirkham, of Todd, was withdrawn before the first ballot.

—The Legislature has been in session nearly six weeks and yet but two bills have passed and become laws. The second was to repeal the Greenup road law.

—The Louisville Times says that Hon. D. B. Edmiston is the most punctual and businesslike chairman in the House. His committee is the enrollment and never has to be waited for.

—The Judiciary Committee of the Legislature has decided not to report the Goebel lottery bill in its original shape. A substitute is to be offered making none of the offenses more than misdemeanors and fixing the penalties at fines instead of the severe punishment outlined in the Goebel bill.

—Senator Breckinridge presented three bills Tuesday. One proposed to allow the county court of Boyle to sell its poor-house farm, buy another, build a poor-house upon it, issue bonds to defray the expense and levy a tax to discharge the same. Another amends the General Statutes in reference to turnpikes and the last regulates the conduct of the agricultural bureau.

—Hon. D. B. Edmiston sends us a copy of the proposed act to protect fish in the waters of this State. It forbids the erection of any mill dam, or other obstructions across any of the running waters, unless suitable fishways are arranged, and county courts shall not grant permission for such obstructions, unless said fishways are provided. The county courts shall within six months after the passage of the act have such fishways provided at all dams, &c., now existing, said fishways to be made and maintained by the owners. Under a penalty of $10 to $25 fine, it shall be unlawful to place any set-net, seine, drag-net, or such contrivance to take fish, which fine shall be worked out on the streets or roads, if not paid. The placing of any drugs, dynamite, or using any other explosive, shall be punishable by fine of $25 with the working penalty if not paid. The person finding nets or other contrivances in the waters shall have the right to destroy them, for which he shall be paid $1 each from the county treasury. The person reporting violations of this act shall be paid $5 for each case reported, in which there is a conviction. Circuit judges must make this act a special charge to the grand juries. The taking of minnows and other bait by trot lines or other devices, is not prohibited under the act. If passed the law shall go into effect at once.

NEWSY NOTES.

—A bill allowing the presence of reporters at executions by electricity has been passed by the New York Legislature.

—Justice Marsce, of Bell county, has been forced to leave home with his family, owing to the threats made by the Turner gang.

—The Whisky Trust has declared war against its competitors by a reduction of two cents and the authorization of further reduction, if necessary to hold its trade.

—The stone quarries on the K. C., in this county, are shipping large quantities of fine building stone to the cities and the East. The stone industry on that road is rapidly increasing, the output growing larger daily.

—A Westinghouse instruction card passed up to Corbin Tuesday over the K. C., via Livingston. We suppose it is for the instruction of employees in the handling and maintaining air brakes, etc., of the Westinghouse make.

—The Masonic Lodge here at its last meeting entered an order on their record that they would not officiate at the bur-

—The Louisiana Lottery is about to give up the fight and move from the State.

—Cashier John Ritter, of the Glasgow Deposit Bank, which closed its doors the other day, has gone raving crazy.

—The monthly report shows that the cash in the United States treasury decreased $3,205,689 during January.

—An official estimate of the number of people without food and needing aid on account of the Russian famine puts it at 14,000,000.

—Gov. Brown has declined to commute the sentence of death passed on Robert Charlton, at Henderson, who will be hanged Friday.

—Moses Hopkins, a California pioneer, is dead. He left an estate worth $3,000,000, accumulated chiefly in agricultural pursuits.

—At Savannah, Ga., Deputy Collector of Customs David G. Porter was killed by his 15-year-old son. Porter was drunk and struck his wife.

—The Supreme Court decides that the law prohibiting the circulation through the mails of papers containing lottery advertisements is all right.

—Just over the State line from Bell county the Turner and Patton factions fought another battle and Geo. Sharp, of the Turner crowd, was killed.

—Ed Biggs, the forger, who escaped from the Cynthiana jail a few weeks ago, was the man killed by a train at Bowling Green Friday morning.

—A decision of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court upholds a law compelling citizens of cities to pay for street improvements in front of their property.

—There was another hung jury in the case of Glascock for the murder of Logan Roller, at Lebanon, though the proof was clear; that it was a very unjustifiable killing.

—Mrs. E. Ellsworth Miller, of Cold Springs, N. Y., is the mother of two sets of triplets, three pairs of twins and two other children, making in all 14 children born to her in eight years.

—The Beaver, Pa., editors were sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $600 and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period of six months for libel against Senator M. S. Quay.

—Carlisle W. Harris, of New York, charged with poisoning his girl wife, was Tuesday found guilty of murder in the first degree. Killing by electricity is too good for him. A slow roast would suit his case better.

—Gov. Brown appointed Miss Mollie E. Cummings, of Maysville, a notary public of Mason county. This is the second lady in the State who has been granted a commission, the other residing in Covington.

—The Ohio Legislature practically admits that there is no case against Senator Brice by recommending that the U. S. Senate investigate the charges, that as he is not a citizen of Ohio he can not represent her in the Senate.

—The court of appeals decides that a county judge is personally responsible where it was shown that he had appointed a trustee to an estate with insufficient security, whereby the estate was lost or suffered great damage.

—Appomattox Court-House, near which Lee surrendered to Grant, was burned, with all its records. The McLayne house, in which Gen. Lee signed the terms of surrender to Gen. Grant, was at one time threatened with destruction.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Mr. M. N. Langford is erecting a residence.

—The young folks give an entertainment at the court-house to night.

—Mr. W. A. B. Davis and wife were called by telegram to Burnside, Tuesday, to see a sister of Mr. D., who is not expected to live.

—Mr. C. A. Blanford has been transferred from the Woodbine office to Parksville, while E. J. Jewell gets Woodbine.

—It is said that the town council at their last meeting passed some stringent ordinances on the subject of morality, etc.

—It is rumored that the Pine Hill Coal Co., which shut down six months since, on account of a strike of miners, will shortly resume operations.

—It is a matter of some doubt with many as to whether that much talked of little quadruped placed any portion of his anatomy between the sun and earth on the 24.

—Mr. W. A. Clifford, operator at Colburg, Ind., writing to the railroad agent at this place relative to his lately invented telegraph sounder, says: "You certainly have reached the goal of perfection."

—DEATHS.—Mrs. F. M. Curtis died at Maresburg a few days since from the grip. The mother of Miss L. Sowder died at Maresburg a few days ago. An infant of J. F. Watson, of Brodhead, died Saturday.

—The stone quarries on the K. C., in this county, are shipping large quantities of fine building stone to the cities and the East. The stone industry on that road is rapidly increasing, the output growing larger daily.

—A Westinghouse instruction card passed up to Corbin Tuesday over the K. C., via Livingston. We suppose it is for the instruction of employees in the handling and maintaining air brakes, etc., of the Westinghouse make.

—The Masonic Lodge here at its last meeting entered an order on their record that they would not officiate at the burial of any non-affiliating Mason who has allowed 12 months to pass without affiliating with some Lodge.

—Mrs. Sam Spoonamore is on the sick list. Mr. S. E. Owsley is hauling hay to Danville. Joe Robinson, formerly of this settlement, but now of Adair county, writes us that he is having a good school for his first effort in teaching. He is a good scholar and will press things to succeed.

—Joe Proffit, a small boy of this place, in jumping down off a fence landed on a snag, which entered the flesh to the depth of 3 1/2 inches. He remained impaled for several minutes before he could extricate himself. He has been confined to bed since the accident and his case has been precarious, but is now improving.

—Miss Maggie Spradlin is visiting in Gallatin, Tenn. Mr. Willis B. Adams was up from Garrard last week. Eight commercial travelers visited this place Tuesday. Rev. John Bell Gibson preached here Sunday morning and evening.

It is understood that he has been engaged to preach once a month here during the year. Mr. F. M. Curtis has been seriously ill. Mr. John M. Brown is improving. Mr. J. R. Cass was up from Brodhead a couple of days this week assisting Houk & Son in invoice. Hor. J. S. Joplin was home from Frankfort Monday and Tuesday and returned Wednesday. Miss Nell Johnston, a Garrard beauty, is visiting her sister and friends at this place. Mr. R. A. Welsh is sticking type in the Signal office. Mr. J. W. McCall was up from Tennessee to be present at the burial of his sister, Mrs. Curtis.

I have quite a number of FARMS for sale of the very best of the country. These farms are all well improved and good rich lands, running in size from 50 to 500 Acres. Considering their locality, their richness and fertility of soil, the convenience of turnpikes and railroads that bring markets right to our door, they are cheaper than the lands of any other county in the State. There is scarcely a Farm in the county over 5 miles from a depot.

The county is checked with turnpikes running in every direction. There is not a public road entering the county seat that is not a Macadamized. We have the Knoxville Branch of the L. & N. R. R. dividing the county from East to West and the C. & O. R. R. from North to South; the C. & O. R. R. from this place to Cincinnati, crossing the C. & O. at Winchester, giving full access to the markets of the whole world. Besides, we have three large Flour Mills in the county that give us a market for all our grain right at home; and the development of the mountain regions of Eastern and South-eastern Kentucky by railroads and the outlet South by railroads has created such a demand for all kinds of cereals and provisions that we can scarcely retain enough for home consumption.

The people are prosperous, generous and kind, believing in Christianity and education. There is not a neighborhood in the county but has a good church and school-house.

Stanford, the county seat of Lincoln, is a prosperous little city of about 2,000 inhabitants and is the great gateway from the North and North-east South and from the Northwest to Southeast, and standing as it does gazing right into the bosom of the undeveloped mountains of Southeastern Kentucky backed up by the whole Blue-Grass region of the State with railroads running through it to all points of the compass, makes it naturally one of the best located towns in the South for manufactures and other enterprises of magnitude.

Water Works are now being agitated and right about the town about three-fourths of a mile there could be erected Water Works with very little cost that would supply a city of 150,000 inhabitants with the purest and best water in the world. Our little city has been newly rebuilt in the last few years and its business houses and residences will compare with larger cities of greater pretensions. Our merchants and tradesmen are all prosperous and doing well. We have two banks with a capital stock of $200,000 that are prosperous and in a good condition.

We have splendid schools. We have a Female College, a large brick building, with over 100 pupils in attendance and under the principalship of Prof. J. M. Hubbard, is in a flourishing condition. We also have a Seminary that is a good school, with Prof. B. F. Blakeman at its head. We have one of the best Public School buildings in this section of the State, with over 100 pupils in attendance, and with other good private schools, you see our school facilities are excellent.

We have elegant church buildings, representing every denomination, with a full corps of ministers of fine class talent and are doing a better business than any class of men in the country.

I have tried to make this statement as facts, without any exaggeration or coloring, as those who know will bear me out, and those who wish to buy pleasant homes at fair prices and locate among good people with all the best surroundings, would do well to call and see me before purchasing elsewhere.

Our Squandered Substance.

When Mr. Harrison and the 51st Congress came into power there was a surplus in the treasury so large as to be embarrassing.

In less than three years that surplus has been squandered and the government so burdened with new and permanent obligations that the Ways and Means Committee has had to ask the secretary of the treasury to inform it whether or not the country can meet its expenses without the adoption of devices for getting more money out of the people.

And this startling change has not been brought about by the reduction of taxes. On the contrary, the 51st Congress multiplied taxes. The straightened condition of the treasury is due solely to wanton waste and reckless squandering—bounties, subsidies and the diversion of taxes, by means of prohibitive duties from the treasury to the coffers of a fat-frying, favored class of monopolists.

What do plain men of sense think of such stewardship? And what are they going to do about it at the polls next fall?—N. Y. World.

The fastest time in which a train has been known to travel a mile is 49 seconds and a fraction; to accomplish the same distance the fastest bicyclist who has hitherto ridden took 23 minutes, or just about three times as long. An ice-yacht has traveled a mile in 1 minute and 10 seconds, a running horse in 1 3/4 seconds, a torpedo-boat in 1 minute and 50 seconds, a steam yacht in 2 minutes and 12 seconds and a fraction and a skater on ice with a favorable wind behind him in 2:12 and rather a larger fraction. A little way after the safety bicycle comes the ocean liner; the ocean-man is much slower, taking 5 minutes and 40 seconds to travel a mile, and the slowest of all is the swimmer, who requires very little short of a half hour to perform the same journey.

When a certain actor, now famous, made his first appearance some critical person threw a cabbage-head at him. As it fell on the stage the actor picked it up and stepped forward to the footlights. He raised his hand to command silence, and when his tormentors paused to hear what he had to say, exclaimed, pointing to the cabbage head:

"Ladies and gentlemen, I expected to please you with my acting, but I confess I did not expect that any one in the audience would lose his head over it."

He was allowed to proceed without further interruption.—Harper's Magazine.

Bill Nye says that "a man may use a wart on the back of his neck for a collar button; ride on the back coach of a railway train to save interest on his money till the conductor goes around; stop his watch at night to save wear and tear; leave his 'i' or 't' without a dot or cross to save ink; pasture his mother's grave to save corn; but a man of this sort is a gentleman and a scholar compared to a fellow that will take a newspaper two or three years and when asked to pay for it puts it in the office and has it marked refused."

Christ was unlike any being that ever lived. His majesty more majestic, his humility more humble, his kindness kinder, his strength stronger. To be an example to copy as far as the finite can imitate the infinite, but after virtue has climbed the highest, it is far below this Himalayan altitude. We say in liberty of speech that others are like him, but that would be anarchy of speech, which would say he is like this one or that.—Talmage.

"He is a balciz-n," said Napoleon, "who undermines the religious faith of his country. All may not, perhaps, be substantially good, but certain it is, that all come in aid of the government power and are essential to the basis of morality. In the absence of religion, I can discover no inducement to be virtuous. I desire to live and die in mine; nothing is more painful to me than the hideous spectacle of an old man dying like a dog."

As a result of a 100-days' experiment, the Purdue experiment station believes that, other things being equal, steers fed cut clover hay will make a better growth than those fed whole clover hay, and that the gain from this feeding is nearly 50 per cent. A slight amount of exercise when fattening steers is beneficial, rather than close confinement.—N. E. Farmer.

Among the weavers employed in a Biddeford, Me., cotton mill is a woman who stands six feet three inches in her stocking feet and is large and strong in proportion. She is more than a match for any man about the mill, either in boxing or wrestling.

An Oregon man recently invited 20 people to dine off one sweet potato, which weighed nearly ten pounds, and of which there was a respectable remnant after everybody's appetite had been satisfied.

BREVITIES

CHATS ABOUT MEN.

According to the London newspapers Gladstone delivered his maiden speech June 8, 1833.

Among the freshmen at Williams college is Prince Besolow, the son of an African chief.

Mountney Jephson, the Irishman of Stanley's expedition, comes from County Cork. He is a kinsman of Chinese Gordon, and like all African explorers is fond of writing about his travels.

W. N. Pethick, recently appointed managing director of the Chinese railways by Li Hung Chang, who is running China at present for the young emperor, was formerly a citizen of New York.

Charles Hill Wells, the successful Monte Carlo gambler, is a civil engineer and inventor, and owns a number of patents of gas and electrical engines for steamships. He is an accomplished linguist and a bachelor.

Dom Pedro left little money, and the Comte and Comtesse d'En depend entirely upon the Duc de Nemours, who allows them 10,000 francs a month income, upon which they can live comfortably enough at Versailles.

William Morris, the English poet, who is deemed a probable successor to Lord Tennyson in the laureateship, is the manager of a factory for wall paper, has a profitable brick-and-brace shop and owns several shares in a successful magazine.

Professor Eben Norton Horsford, of Cambridge, has devoted himself for the past six years to trying to find out who were the first discoverers of this country, and has decided that it was the Northmen, and that their first landing was made on Cape Cod.

TURF TOPICS.

A covered track will probably be the best thing for independence.

The report that Mayor Grant of New York was going on the turf is true, Frank McCabe will train for him.

Arion is the only trotter that ever started out at the beginning of a season with no record and retired at the end with one as fast as 2:10 3/4.

The fastest trotting record is 2:08 3/4. Mr. Bonner does not think he will live to see the day a trotter will go in 2:05, but many breeders disagree with him.

The driver of Cheyenne, the famous blind trotter, talks to him continually in a race, and it is said the confidence of the horse in his driver's voice is wonderful.

Eleven years ago when Fred Crocker made the 2-year-old record of 2:25 1/4 it drew the attention of horsemen to Electioneer as the coming sire, so great things are expected from Sydney, as he has a yearling, Fron-Frou, that has accomplished the same time.

The advance in speed made by trotting horses during 1891 was the greatest of any year. More 2-year-olds have made records below 2:30 than ever before, and three have made records from 2:18 to 2:10 3/4, namely, Ralph Wilkes, 2:18; Monbars, 2:16 3/4; and Arion, 2:10 3/4.

The most wonderful performer of 1891 was Direct. He opened the year with no record as a pacer, won all his races but one and ended the season with a record of 2:09. 2:08, 2:08 3/4, any heat being faster than ever before made by any harness horse in a race. Aside from this he made time records of 2:06 twice.

WHISPERS ABOUT WOMEN.

Probably the only woman dealer in old books in England is Miss Clare Willard, of Teddington, Essex.

Mrs. Henry Villard has presented to Howard university in Washington a bust of her father, William Lloyd Garrison.

Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, who has been called the pioneer woman preacher of America, lives a life of great retirement at Elizabeth, N. J.

Mrs. General Collis is said to be lost to friends in a study of the language of the Finlanders. She has already translated for her own amusement various short fairy tales.

Miss Vinnie Hall, who began her career by learning to set type and was afterward promoted to be forewoman of a composing room, is now, at the age of twenty, editor and publisher of the Edgely (N. D.) Mail.

Mrs. Laura Pelton Hazard, a grand niece of the late Samuel J. Tilden, has just made over to New York city $2,000,000 of the sum coming to her from the division of the late governor's estate in order that part at least of his desire for endowing a public library may be carried out.

AROUND THE THRONES.

Queen Victoria forgets names, but never faces. Once seen, they linger in her memory to be recalled at a glance, even after the lapse of years.

The begum of Bhopal recently entertained some renowned English people at a banquet. She addressed them in Urdu and made what seemed to be a very graceful speech proposing the health of Queen Victoria and professing a warm regard for England.

The Russian royal treasury contains some of the most valuable objects in the world. Among them is the throne of the Czar Alexis, which was brought from Persia, valued at $1,000,000. It is enriched with 876 diamonds, 1,223 rubies and unnumbered lesser gems.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

Rhea is not going to play in this country next season.

A negro minstrel company has been organized in New York for a year's tour of South Africa.

Emily Rigi is to star next season in "The Banker's Daughter," under the management of F. F. Proctor.

Sardon, the great French playwright, writes a hand so fine that it almost requires a magnifying glass to read it.

It is said that more than 2,000,000 people have witnessed "Little Lord Fauntleroy" since its first production.

More than 2,000 persons are employed in and about the thirty odd theaters in New York as actors, agents, ushers, managers, bill posters and so on.

Two kinds of reports are in circulation about Blind Tom. One is that he is in an insane asylum, and the other that he is playing in concerts as well as ever.

Augustus Piton has accepted and put into rehearsal a play by Fanny Aymar Mathews, entitled "The Crisis," which deals with social and diplomatic life in Washington.

Bonacalt's widow has sued Robert Buchanan to recover $2,500 alleged to be due the playwright's estate for having illegally produced the "Shaughraun" without paying any royalties.

Nita Sykes, of Sidney Drew's company, is a daughter of General Sykes, of the northern army during the war. Generals Sherman and Porter advised her to adopt the stage as a profession.

Charles H. Hoyt has written ten plays, each of them a success, and he is yet looking for his thirty-first birthday. These ten plays, or rather nine of them, for "A Temperance Town" has not yet been produced, have made over $1,000,000.

ODDS AND ENDS.

In twelve years the city of Paris has expended $270,000 on statues and $85,000 on ornamental fountains.

In 100 years $500 worth of pennies would only be worth $250, so quickly does copper money wear away.

Esop, whose fables have been read for more than 2,000 years, was born 620 years before Christ. He was a slave in the island of Samos, Greece.

Fanapompa, or forced labor, prevails in Madagascar. The system works great hardship on the poor peasantry of the island. They are compelled to perform all public burdens without wages.

The civil service records of the past three years show that out of the number of men applicants examined for government offices only a little over one-half passed, while four-fifths of the women applicants passed.

The Mohammedan woman has a higher legal position than her English sister. By Mohammedan law the marriage contract only gives the husband certain clearly defined rights over his wife and none whatever over her property.

An excellent idea has been recently put into practice by a drug firm in England. On every bottle or package of poison sold by the firm a label is pasted, on which are printed directions as to the antidote which should be employed in case the poison is taken by human beings, accidentally or intentionally.

The aggregate amount paid in wages to diamond workers in Holland is about $5,000,000 a year, and it is estimated that 10,000 persons are employed in this industry. Two million dollars' worth of these precious stones come direct from Holland to the United States every year, and the same amount is also shipped to London and Paris.

THE LATEST IN JEWELS.

Small flasks of silver plated ware with curved sides are covered with designed enamel.

Bracelets in dead gold with spiral markings have turquoises set gypsy fashion.

A new bronze is a shell with six stalwart oarsmen. The long, narrow shape is attractive.

Silver mounted combs for serious work on the hair have enjoyed fine holiday popularity.

Pier set pincushions were never prettier. Circles and squares of pale tinted velvets have ornaments of silver applied on the back. The flower-de-luce, the double heart and birds with outstretched wings, are the favorite devices.

Sleeve links, one of which is an oval button, the other a slender ornament, have come out with enamel decorations. Both are very thin and are covered with tracery. The white enamel is especially pretty. Another design is shell shaped. It is also wafelike in substance, with shell-like markings in enamel.—Jeweler's Circular.

RAILROAD JOTTINGS.

American railways employ nearly two million men.

The new Swiss railway—the Brenzer Rothhornbahn—is the highest in the Alps. It is 7,586 feet at the summit level.

Of every 100 persons who traveled on English railways last year 88 1/2 went in third class carriages, while 7 1/2 were second and only 3 1/2 went first class.

The longest and heaviest train ever carried over any road in this country consisted of 225 loaded four wheel coal cars on the Lehigh Valley railway.

Steel smokestacks are being placed upon the locomotives of the elevated railroads in New York, thus reducing the weight from 800 to about 100 pounds.

From Bockworth pass two routes lead to San Francisco—one through the valley of the Sacramento and the other following the coast more closely and reaching tidewater just north of the city.

Henry V. by a Deaf and Dumb Company.

A highly interesting performance of Shakespeare's "Henry V." has been given by forty-one inmates of the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb. The children are trained and educated at Margate and the play was produced at the Old Kent Road branch of the institution. With two exceptions, all the members of the little company have never heard the sound of the human voice, and it was remarkable that the best articulation and the nearest approach to modulation of tone was obtained by two lads who in the common sense of the term, have been "dumb" since birth.

Thanks, however, to the oral system they are dumb no longer, and it was astonishing to realize that Prince Henry and Falstaff were themselves deaf to the sound of the words which Dr. Elliott their headmaster, had taught them to speak with appropriate emphasis and gesture. The part of Henry IV was impersonated very intelligently and the girl who played the first pilgrim lady is evidently gifted with histrionic ability. Queen Joan was also admirably presented by Rebecca Sonnenberg, whose rhymed recitation at the close of the play was well received.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Gas Wells Giving Out.

At last it has dawned upon the people of northwestern Ohio that their supply of natural gas is almost exhausted. So confident have they been in its permanence that the nature of the discovery is almost startling. Today not more than one-tenth of the manufacturing in northwestern Ohio are supplied with natural gas. At the same time the supply for private consumption has been so decreased that many a family has tossed the gasburner into the back yard and returned to hickory and coal. Many others kept constant supplies of coal on hand ready for emergency at any time. Coal is also burned with the gas when it is low by a majority of consumers.

Since gas was first used for fuel here the pressure has decreased over 350 pounds. The volume, however, is sufficient for all the drains upon it. The trouble is that the pressure is too weak to force the gas to the burners. It is sluggish and dormant in the mains, or in a state of inertia in the rock and wells.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Storm Bound Lighthouse Keepers.

A gallant and successful attempt was recently carried out to make the relief of the Chickens Rock lighthouse, off the Gulf of Man in the Irish sea. The relief was more than a fortnight overdue and there had been no communication with the rock for a month. When the boat went out from Port St. Mary there was a heavy sea to contend with and a strong northwest wind, and it was feared that the attempt would be a failure, but the crew persisted in what was seen to be a very dangerous task and successfully accomplished it.

The men were changed and fresh food was supplied, but before the whole of the situation increased so much that the stores could be landed the dangers of work had to be suspended, and a quick run was made to Port St. Mary. The three lighthouse keepers who were storm bound had been living for some weeks entirely on tinned meats and ship's biscuits. They were all in good health.—London Letter.

A Triple Wedding.

Six intimate friends, three young men and three young women, in Louisville two years ago agreed among themselves that one should not marry unless the others did. A year later one of the young men and one of the young women became engaged to each other, but as the others were yet apparently heart free they could not marry. Six months later another couple agreed to join their lots for life, but then came trouble. The third young man was willing to marry, but the third young woman was not.

This drove the other two couples nearly wild, and they frantically reproached the reluctant maiden for keeping them out of happy matrimony. Finally, a few weeks ago she yielded, and on New Year's eve the three couples were married, the justice of the peace who performed the ceremony arranging them before him in the form of a horseshoe.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Caught a Monster Eagle in a Trap.

Pete Marker, who is working out at A. H. Smith's sawmill, on Rifle creek, set a large trap, thinking to catch a monster bear whose tracks were seen in the neighborhood. Several days after he went out to look at his trap, but instead of the bear found a large bald eagle, the largest perhaps ever seen in the Rocky mountains.

The eagle had been caught in the powerful jaws of the trap by one leg, just above the claws. He had dragged the immense trap, which was secured to a heavy log by a chain, into some brush more than twenty-five feet from the spot where trapped, and was dead. So large and strong was his leg that it was not broken. The eagle was too large to carry, so the trapper cut both legs off as trophies. He measured the huge bird, and it was twelve feet from tip to tip of its outstretched wings.—Grand Junction News.

The Roman Catholic Episcopate.

There are at present 59 cardinals of the Catholic church, including 6 cardinal bishops, 47 priests and 7 deacons, all of whom, except 3 cardinal priests and 7 deacons, are patriarchs, archbishops or bishops. Of these 59 cardinals 34 are Italian; 7 Austrian, German or Polish; 5 French; 4 British subjects; 4 Spanish; 2 Portuguese; 1 of the United States; 1 Belgian, and 1 Swiss.—St. James' Gazette.

Odd Electioneering.

Luigi Emanuele Farina, the Italian deputy who died a short time ago, was a politician of unique electioneering devices. One rainy election day he sent to each of about 400 voters an umbrella with his compliments. At another time he had pigs driven through the streets with this notice hanging from the snout of each, "Whoever votes for Farina may eat of me."—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE Barbourville Land and Improvement Company has made an assignment to Gov. Alford and W. J. Caudill for the benefit of its creditors. Possibly when the thing gets in some other management it may do some good.

IF the g. h. happened to be out at the times, he saw his shadow about thrice Tuesday. Mr. W. Lewis Withers, who was born on ground hog day and celebrated his 45th birthday the 2d, tells us that he does not remember but one perfectly clear g. h. day. If there be no precipitation, the weather is usually cloudy and dreary.

THE Old Fellows are a little perplexed at present to know how they are to give the password to a member who has become nearly as deaf as a post. It is strictly against the rules of the order to write it or speak it above a whisper and as the gentleman can hardly hear it thunder he will likely not catch on to it when whispered to him.

THE disgraced mayor of Somerset, Barney Higgins, did not give the bond required till a few days ago, when some dozen or so of his railroad friends and others came to his rescue. It was for $1,000 and among the signers are A. J. Catron and S. Q. Gover. Higgins continues to assert his innocence and says he will resume his job on the railroad, satisfied that he will come out in flying colors in the end.

JUDGE STEPHEN BURCH announces himself a candidate for circuit clerk, in this issue, subject to the will of the democracy. If elected his son, Wm. S. Burch, will perform the duties of the office, the judge simply running because his son is a little under age. We are not familiar with the capabilities of the young man, but those who know say he is very bright and promising and fully able, with the assistance he will have, of performing the duties of the office. The judge himself has many friends and says he has not gone into the race unadvisedly.

TUESDAY morning as little Sam Embury and Carroll Portman were taking a ride on a couple of young horses, the one that Carroll was riding became frightened and took out at a break neck speed. Sam's followed suit and for a while it was a model horse race. The jockeys were hardly equal to the occasion, however, and before the horses came "under the string" they were joited out of their perch and thrown to the ground in anything else but a gentle manner. Jockey Embury is severely cut about the head and has a number of bruises on his body, while Jockey Portman escaped with a few scratches.

A MAN who said his name was Owens and claimed to be a bad one from Coal Creek, Tenn., was arrested for being drunk and disorderly, Tuesday, but after spending the night in the jug and cooling off, he was let off with a reprimand. When Marshal Newland attempted to arrest him he refused to go and showed fight. The officer drew his pistol and brought it down on him, and calling Messrs. Sine and Gillentine to take him in tow, they soon had him before Judge Carson. He pretended to have a pistol, but when searched nothing more formidable than a pint bottle half full of liquor was discovered.

ASSIGNED.—J. Mat Phillips made an assignment Tuesday for the benefit of his creditors, to Judge M. C. Sautley. The Farmers Bank & Trust Company is the principal creditor, its claim amounting to over $10,000 and the whole indebtedness not much over $11,000. His assets are a farm which he values at $13,000 with the stock; a store-room and lot in Lancaster, $5,000, and two lots upon which the houses recently burned, $2,500, making in all $20,500. He had no insurance on the Lancaster property and this with the difficulty of obtaining the cash for what he has precipitated the assignment.

FOR SALE.—A buggy horse. Will trade for cattle if party desires. M. F. Elkin & Co.

LITTLE SALLIE, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Woods, was burned yesterday afternoon, but we were unable to learn the extent up to the hour of going to press.

It is just 17 years ago to day since the present editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL issued his salutatory. He doesn't know as much about the newspaper business as he thought he did then, but he has had a good deal of experience in those 17 years.

QUITE a number of young men here were escorted to the leap year party, at Lancaster, last night, by as many of Stanford's fairest. The young ladies, no doubt, gave the boys some valuable points as to how they should behave on such occasions.

JANUARY has come and gone and our books show that there are still some accounts unpaid. Our friends will please bear in mind that we have been exceedingly indulgent and will consider it quite a favor if they will come forward and settle. Sine and Menefee.

WHILE playing around the fire yesterday little Josie, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brady had her clothes to catch fire and in an instant they were in flames. Mrs. Will Foster rushed to the rescue, however, and in a short while smothered the fire. It was a narrow escape and it is a miracle that the little one was not burned to death.

THE First National Bank of Fort Scott, Kansas, W. Chennault, president, E. R. Chennault, vice president, and J. Chennault, cashier, is making its stockholders here glad by sending them a 4 per cent. dividend for the six months ending Feb. 1. The capital is $300,000 and the earnings for the half year were $22,107, out of which after paying dividend and all other expenses $1,488.81 was carried to the surplus.

REV. G. W. BOLLING, the colored preacher and republican politician, is at present resting under suspicion. He is said by his colored friends to have found a pocket book on the cars, which, when the owner caused him to produce, was minus $20, which he claimed was in it. Bolling is said to have gone into the ladies' saloon after picking up the book, but he solemnly avers that he took no money from it.

THE Model Minstrels, Sweeney, Alvado, Gorman & Goetz proprietors, gave a splendid show at Walton's Opera House Monday night, to next to the largest crowd that ever attended a performance there in the 11 years it has been open. It was a highly delighted crowd, too, for everything was good from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Sweeney's hand balancing, Alvado's jugglery, the music, dancing and the contortionists were all of the highest order of talent and everything went like clockwork. The band is an unusually large and fine one and the orchestra is rarely surpassed. It is a good show and no mistake.

THE Louisville Times publishes a cock and bull story about a Louisville lawyer receiving a money order for $25 with a request to come to this place immediately "on strictly private business." The latter was assigned A. E. South and in it the writer stated that the lawyer should stop at the Myers House, in room No. 10, and call for a letter in box No. 1 immediately on his arrival. The gentleman obeyed orders, but soon on his arrival an attempt was made to bore the door open and his slumbers were greatly interfered with. The lawyer made his trip for nothing for there was no letter for him nor could he find out who South was. The whole thing is no doubt a falsehood, gotten up by some poor reporter, who probably had not handed in much news for that issue.

BLOODY WORK IN CASEY.

One Person Killed and Two Wounded. MIDDLEBURG, Feb. 4.—Last Sunday morning, about two miles from Danville, on Goose Creek, near a still-house, there was a scene of bloodshed and murder. Several had gathered there and during the time a quarrel ensued between Curd Williams and one McDaniel, when pistol shots were exchanged between them. Williams shot at McDaniel and missing him shot Charley Thomas, a boy of 17, through the bowels, from which he died Sunday night. After shooting Thomas, Williams then shot at McDaniel again, the ball taking effect in McDaniel's jaw, near the mouth, and ranging upward near his ear. McDaniel's brother then rushed up and fired a load of shot in Williams' arm and beat him over the head with a pistol until friends interfered. Williams and McDaniel were both taken to their homes and are now under medical treatment. Thomas, the unfortunate boy, was buried Tuesday morning.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Candidate for Circuit Clerk.

Subject to the action of the Democratic party, I announce myself a Candidate for the office of Circuit Clerk for Lincoln county. I shall make the race in the interest of my son, Wm. S. Burch, who will not be of the Constitutional age until a few days after the next November election. If I should receive the nomination, and be elected, my son will discharge the duties of the office as my deputy and receive all the emoluments.

STEPHEN BURCH.

TO THE FARMERS.

I am agent for The Central Kentucky Hedge Fence Co., of Lancaster, and offer the services of both myself and the Company to the citizens of Lincoln county. I am very thankful for the liberal patronage received and hope by far dealing to merit continuance. Farmers in need of a good fence will find me at the Myers House in Stanford on each County Court day.

WANTED

To Buy a Store-House and Dwelling-House

AND GARDEN IN STANFORD, KY., and a Farm in the town. Describe property and give price &c. Address C. D. FOWELL, Welchburg, Ky.

Fine Land For Sale.

Having more land than I can manage at my age and the present system of labor, I have determined to sell at a bargain my farm of five hundred and thirty (330) acres, on the Stanford and Danville pike and in seven miles of Lancaster and less than eight miles of the three county seats of rich blue-grass country.

I think this one of the best stock farms in Central Kentucky, taking into consideration beauty, convenience, water, soil, building material, fencing, etc., etc. All of the land is in grass, except about 30 acres of fresh land for corn and 60 acres in wheat, with timothy sown with it, but enough as a purchaser would see it before buying. The title is perfect, being handed down from ancestors from the days of the Indians.

Also stock, consisting of a pair of well broke draft horses, 1 good work Mule, pair 2-year-old Mules, 1 nicely bred saddle Mare, 4 years old, 1 family horse 3 years old, 1 Milk Cow and 1 head young Cattle, about 150 barrels of Corn in the crib, 600 bushels of Hay baled, a few Hogs and Cattle. Also 1 Hotel Building and 2 Dwelling Houses for sale or rent. Am going to sell regardless of cost. Apply to

A. M. FELAND.

FOR SALE.

232 Acres of Splendid Blue-Grass Land,

Desirably located on turnpike road leading from Stanford to Milledgeville, Lincoln County, Ky., 6 miles from Stanford, 4 miles from Hustonville, to from Danville, 4 miles from Junction City and within 15 miles of Moreland, a station on the C. & S. R. R. The Farm has upon it an elegant and spacious two-story brick residence, (tin roof) all necessary outbuildings and an abundance of fruit trees of almost every variety. Much of the land is virgin soil, well timbered, abundantly watered and nearly all well set in farming implements and some Household and Kitchen Furniture.

For sale, also 35 Mules 2 years old next Spring.
